Program Background

What is Performance Track?

- U.S. EPA voluntary program that recognizes and rewards top environmental performers that go beyond compliance in pursuit of continuous improvement
- Launched in mid-2000, now has nearly 350 members (including defense facilities and NDIA member firms)

National Environmental Performance Track
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

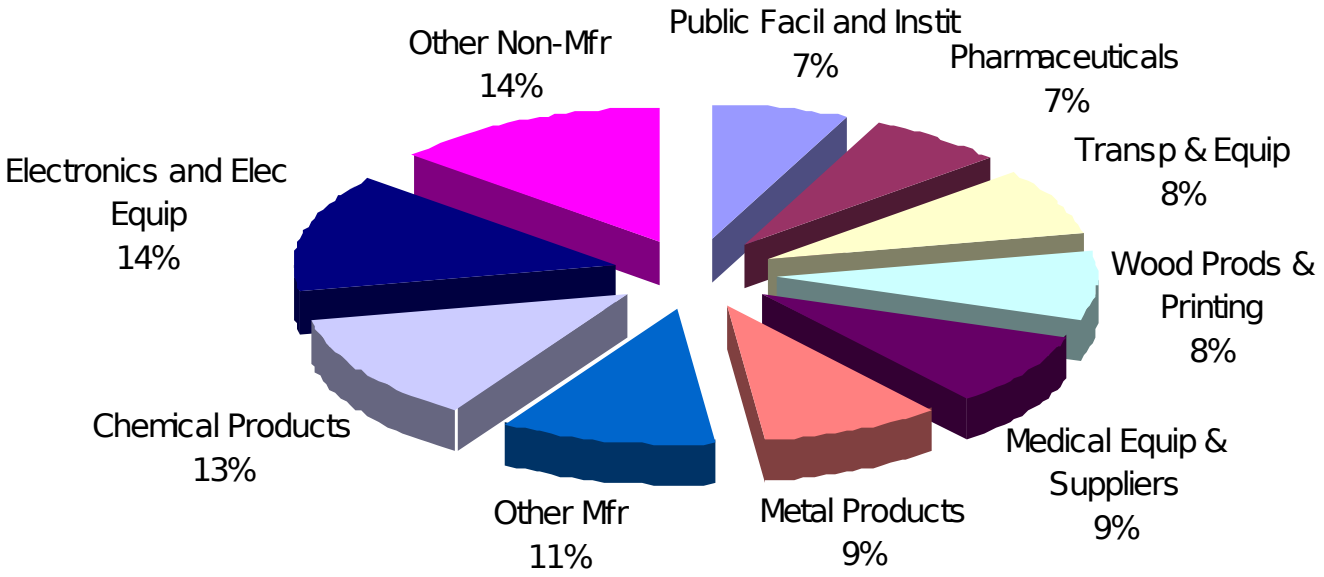
Entry Criteria for Performance Track

- Operational Environmental Management System (EMS) in place
- History of sustained compliance
- Commitment to continuous environmental improvement
  - 3-year goals for improved environmental performance
- Demonstrated commitment to public outreach

National Environmental Performance Track
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

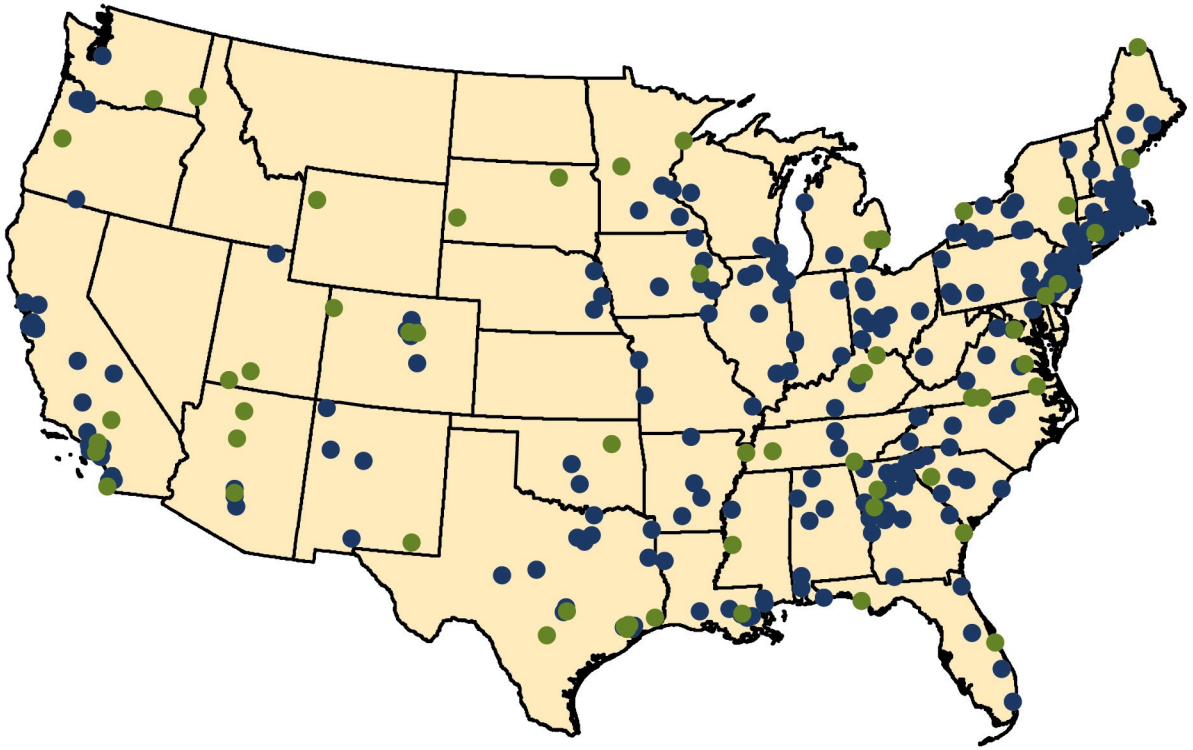
Program Background

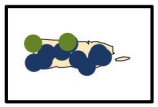
Distribution of Members



National Environmental PerformanceTrack
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

Member Locations





National Environmental PerformanceTrack
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

What Can Performance Track Do For You?

- Reduce costs
- Distinguish your facility
- Provide public recognition
- Facilitate networking with peers
- Leverage emerging trends towards integrated economic, social, and environmental practices

Facility Management

National Environmental Performance Track
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency